Presenters:

Things That Go Bump MN:

Things That Go Bump MN, is a paranormal investigation group based out of St. Paul, MN; founded in 2013 by John Marson and Ryan Headley, with over 20 years of paranormal experiences and investigation. Things That Go Bump was created to try to find answers to the “things that go bump in the night.” They have made it their mission to seek answers and in the process, help others go through what they have been through. They have had several unique experiences within the Palmer House themselves and will be sharing some of them during the event.

Suzanne Worthley:

Suzanne is a visionary leader with vast background of psychic skill: spiritual, mental, physical, emotional, oral and telepathic. She is a respected Energy Healing Practitioner that provides several kinds of healing services; personal healings, space healings, spirit work, crossing over work, clearing work and vigil/death and dying work. She has been learning and studying this field for over a dozen years and has been a full time practitioner for six years. Suzanne teaches her own series of energy-based classes, plus Community Education throughout the Twin Cities area and counsel clients on the subjects of energy, healing, personal power, protection and the Higher Self.

Annie Wilder:

Annie is the author of three popular true ghost story books, HOUSE OF SPIRITS AND WHISPERS, SPIRITS OUT OF TIME, and TRUCKER GHOST STORIES. She hosts haunted tea parties and other metaphysical events in her spirit-filled Victorian home nestled in the historic Mississippi River town of Hastings, MN. She has been a guest on the acclaimed radio programs Coast to Coast AM, Darkness Radio with Dave Schrader, and Jim Harold's Paranormal Podcast. Annie has appeared on the Biography Channel show My Ghost Story and the Discovery Channel/Destination America program Monsters and Mysteries in America. Her ghost experiences have been featured in national print and online publications. Annie's home has been investigated by teams of ghost hunters, and visited by a number of prominent psychics including Linda Drake, Jodi Livon, and Echo Bodine.
